Across

5. The alarmist threat of global warming that warns of an impending unstable environment in which distinct seasons are virtually nonexistent is patently _____. God simply will not permit man to destroy His creation.
6. The biblical presentation of the _____ of the universe leaves no room for Darwinian Evolution.
7. The Genesis account of creation eloquently affirms the power, wisdom, and authority of God by recording that the entire universe was formed in _____.
11. A special work of God's providence in which He interrupts the normal patterns of nature.
12. God knows all things actual and possible. God also knows about events that never occur.
16. "Let there be light." (Latin, "let it be").

God & His Ways –Review of Chapter One & Two

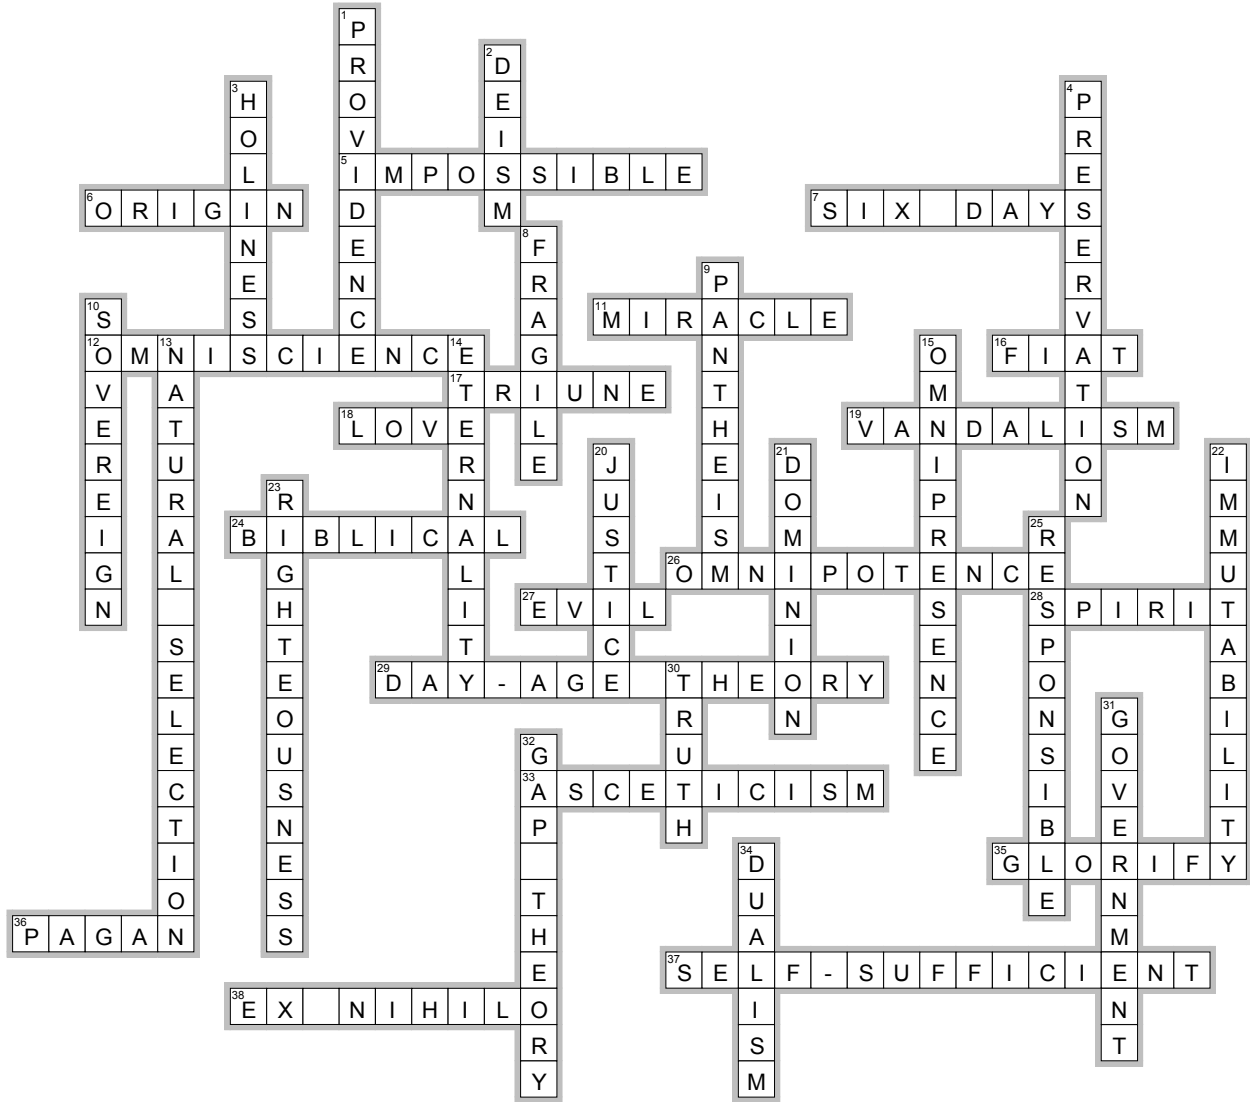

17. There is one God. Three persons are identified as God. These three persons are distinct.
18. God demonstrates this attribute by being patient and being kind.
19. God takes human exploitation of His creation very seriously. Intentional exploitation and thoughtless despoliation of the environment does not constitute dominion but _____.
24. "The earth does not belong to man." This statement is true and _____.
26. God cannot do something that is contrary to His nature. God is able to do whatever His perfect will has determined to do.
27. The Bible does not answer the question, "Why does _____ exist?".
28. God's essential nature. John 4:24
29. This theory states that each creative day in Genesis 1 was actually a period of many millions of years.
33. The non-biblical belief that since matter is inherently evil, spirituality is gained by depriving oneself of material comforts.
35. The chief end of creation is to _____ the Creator by testifying to His eternal power and divine nature. Romans 1:20
36. "Man belongs to the earth." This statement is false and _____.
37. God needs nothing. We need God, but He does not need us. Acts 17:24-25
38. "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." (Latin, "out of nothing").

Down

1. A miracle is God's overt activity in the world. _____ may be described as God's covert activity in orchestrating the affairs of men and the events of history.
2. A belief held by some early American leaders which claims that God created the world but then stepped back to let it operate without supernatural intervention. Cosmic Watchmaker.
3. God is separate from His creation. Not only is He unique, but He is absolutely pure.
4. This refers to God's continuing work of sustaining all that He has created.
8. The earth is not _____ at all. It is, in fact, ancient and far bigger than we are, self-cleansing, self-rejuvenating, and quite stable.
9. The ancient non-Christian belief that teaches that the universe is an emanation of the divine essence.
10. Exercising supreme and permanent authority.
13. There is not nearly enough food, space, shelter, and other necessities for all the offspring that living things can produce. Living things, therefore, constantly compete with each other to live. The phrase "survival of the fittest" is often applied to this process, which was first explained by the English naturalist, Charles Darwin. This view differs from the biblical teaching that God is the ruler over the natural world.
14. God stands outside of time and is able to view all of it at once.
15. God actively permeates the entire universe, every nook and cranny of it.
20. God rewards those who do good with blessings. God punishes those who do evil.
21. God has a structured hierarchy of priorities which values man more highly than animals or plants. Plants and animals are part of the creation over which God has assigned man responsible stewardship.
22. God is unchangeable in His attributes and in His purposes.
23. His character defines what is right and His acts are always in agreement with His character.
25. In Romans 9 & 10, Paul asserts a three point paradox that logic cannot reconcile but that faith must embrace: 1) God is completely sovereign; 2) Man is _____ for his choices; and 3) God is just.
30. God is completely reliable: 1) in His person; 2) in the way He represents reality; and 3) the way He interacts with His creatures.
31. God directs the entire universe to the conclusion that He has purposed for it.
32. This theory states that an interval of millions of years should be understood between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2.
34. The ancient non-Christian belief that teaches that there are two eternal forces in the universe.
