Day 273 – John 1:1-18; Mark 1:1; Luke 1:1-4; 3:23-38; Matthew 1:1-17 ●

The genealogy of Matthew 1:1-17 is that of Joseph, Jesus' legal (though not natural) father. It establishes Jesus' claim and right to the throne of David.

The genealogy of Luke 3:23-38 is evidently that of Mary. ¹

In John 1:1-18, the Greek word logos is translated “Word”. Logos means “word, thought, concept, and the expressions thereof.” Here it is applied to Jesus, who is all that God is and the expression of Him. In John 1:1, the Word (Christ) is said to be with God (i.e., in communion with and yet distinct from God) and to be God (i.e., identical in essence with God). ¹

Per John 1:14, why was Jesus Christ unique?

A major theme of John is the dual one of redemption and judgment. The emphasis is on the fact that men judge themselves.

The acquitted are those who have believed in Him; the condemned are those who have rejected Him.

See John 3:16, 5:22, 8:15, 9:39, and 12:47. ¹

“For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.” John 3:17

What message did Jesus tell Nicodemus about the kingdom of God and eternal life in John 3:1-36?

“For everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come to the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. But he who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God.” John 3:20-21
